

DRAFT MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF THE
BOARD OF REGENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM OF GEORGIA
Atlanta, Georgia
August 12, 2015

CALL TO ORDER

The Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia met on Wednesday, August 12, 2015, in the Board Room, 270 Washington Street SW, Atlanta, Georgia. The Chair of the Board, Regent Neil L. Pruitt, Jr., called the meeting to order at approximately 10:03 a.m. Present, in addition to Chair Pruitt, were Vice Chair Kessel D. Stelling, Jr.; and Regents W. Paul Bowers; Lori Durden; Larry R. Ellis; Rutledge A. Griffin, Jr.; C. Thomas Hopkins, Jr.; James M. Hull; Donald M. Leebern, Jr.; Doreen Stiles Poitevint; Sachin Shailendra; E. Scott Smith; Benjamin J. Tarbutton, III; Richard L. Tucker; T. Rogers Wade; Larry Walker; Don L. Waters; and Philip A. Wilheit, Sr. Regent C. Dean Alford was excused.

INVOCATION AND PLEDGE

The invocation and Pledge of Allegiance was given by Mr. Robert Mydell, College of Coastal Georgia Student Government Association president.

SAFETY BRIEFING

The safety briefing was given by Chief of Police Bruce Holmes.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

With motion made and variously seconded, the Regents who were present voted unanimously to approve the minutes of the Board's May 19, 2015, and July 8, 2015, meetings.

COLLEGE AFFORDABILITY & COMPLETION

At approximately 10:07 a.m., Chair Pruitt called on Vice Chancellor for Strategic Planning Shelley Nickel to present an update on the University System of Georgia's efforts to increase college attainment. Ms. Nickel, along with Senior Executive Director for Research Policy & Analysis Angela Bell and Associate Vice Chancellor for Student Enrollment Services Tracy Ireland, gave a progress report on the effort, which is rooted in the Governor's Complete College Georgia initiative; the Board of Regents' strategic plan; and economic analysis showing that Georgia may lack sufficient graduates to meet future workforce needs. They said that while attainment levels have improved, meeting workforce needs requires ongoing increases in the system's degree production. Their presentation described the current state of financial aid in Georgia and how limited financial resources interfere with the ability of some students to complete a degree, as well as the consequences of insufficient need-based aid, including over reliance on student loans. A copy of this presentation, and an audio recording of Ms. Nickel's, Dr. Bell's and Mr. Ireland's remarks, is on file with, and available for inspection in, the Office of the Secretary to the Board.

COMMITTEE ON PERSONNEL & BENEFITS

The Committee on Personnel & Benefits convened as a committee of the whole at approximately 10:37 a.m. Committee Chair Regent T. Rogers Wade introduced Vice Chancellor for Human Resources Marion Fedrick, who presented for approval the 2016 Plan Design & Premium, and the 2016 Medicare Eligible Retiree Health Study. Both changes will become effective January 1, 2016. With motion made and variously seconded, the Regents present voted unanimously to approve the changes Ms. Fedrick presented. An audio recording of Ms. Fedrick's remarks and a copy of her presentation are on file with, and available for inspection in, the Office of the Secretary to the Board.

COMMITTEE ON ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

The Committee on Personnel & Benefits convened as a committee of the whole at approximately 12:59 p.m.

Committee Vice Chair W. Paul Bowers introduced Georgia Regents University Provost Gretchen B. Caughman and Kennesaw State University Provost Ken Harmon provided recommendations regarding how the USG can address the growing shortfall of qualified people in Georgia's cyber security workforce, from studies stemming from Chancellor Henry M. Huckaby's 2014 charge to a special high-level Cyber Security Committee. Drs. Caughman's and Harmon's presentation provided a status update of the identified national defense and industry needs in Georgia; the current USG capabilities in this area; and the actionable recommendations and estimates of those resources required to fill the gap. They clarified for the Board that all student candidates for such programs will undergo in-depth security screening. An audio recording of Drs. Caughman's and Harmon's remarks, and a copy of their presentation, is on file with, and available for inspection in, the Office of the Secretary to the Board.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA: THREE-MINUTE THESIS

At approximately 1:12 p.m., Vice Chancellor for Strategic Planning Shelley Nickel introduced Ms. Amanda Sutton and Mr. Andrew Fialka, both University of Georgia doctoral candidates and competitors in the Three-Minute Thesis competition, in which students explain their research to non-specialist audiences in that span of time. Ms. Sutton and Mr. Fialka presented their research to the Board and those assembled; copies of their presentations, and recordings of their remarks, are on file with, and available for inspection in, the Office of the Secretary to the Board.

SPECIAL PRESIDENTS INTRODUCTION

At approximately 1:37 p.m., Chancellor Henry M. Huckaby recognized and introduced to the Board several new system institution presidents: Fort Valley State University Acting President Jessica Bailey; Georgia Southern University Acting President Jean Bartels; Georgia Regents University Brooks Keel; Columbus State University President Chris Markwood; and Valdosta State University Interim President Cecil Staton.

CHANCELLOR'S REPORT

Chancellor Henry M. Huckaby gave his report at approximately 1:41 p.m. The Chancellor opened his remarks by recapping the annual Student Advisory Council meeting, hosted at Georgia College & State University, at which he had opportunity to convene with all Student Government Association presidents. Chancellor Huckaby expanded on initiatives stemming from the Campus Safety & Security Committee report at May's Board of Regents meeting. Institutions have already implemented some mandatory training for incoming students; it must be attended or students will be unable to register for next semester's classes. The system also has appointed Assistant Vice Chancellor for Legal Affairs Kimberly Ballard-Washington as its Title IX administrator. The Chancellor also charged the Alcohol & Substance Abuse Task Force with its tasks, per that same report. The task force will provide an interim report by the end of December 2015, with full recommendations made by May 2016.

The Chancellor provided an update on the system's Public-Private Partnership (P3) initiative, including progress on operations and continued construction projects on several institution campuses. Chancellor Huckaby introduced to the Board several new staff: recently-selected Georgia Film Academy Executive Director Jeffrey Stepakoff; Dr. Tom Jackson, who will lead a Heritage Communications initiative; and Chief Information Officer Bob Laurine. Finally, the Chancellor touted recent accomplishments and milestones of several System institutions, and asked for a moment of silence in recognition of an April motor vehicle accident that killed several Georgia Southern University students. An audio recording of Chancellor Huckaby's remarks is on file with, and available for inspection in, the Office of the Secretary to the Board.
